PROJECT TO TURN WASTE INTO ENERGY UNDERWAY

By Martyn Dolton

THE PROJECT to build a £80 million plant to transform household rubbish into energy to power 15,000 homes has begun.

Mayor of London, Boris Johnson, visited the former Ford Dagenham site yesterday (Wednesday) to mark the build with a turf turning ceremony.

The plant will be one of the UK's first large scale advanced gasification plants and is expected to create 25 permanent skilled jobs as well as up to 100 construction jobs during the building works.

Once it is operational in 2013 it will turn almost 100,000 tonnes of waste into around 19 megawatts of energy each year.

The London Waste and Recycling Board (LWARB) agreed a £8.9million loan to Biossence East London Ltd, some of which has been used to secure the site and complete preparation work.

Mr Johnson said it was a 'fantastic' scheme.

He said: "This will be a fantastic facility taking our everyday rubbish and miraculously transforming it into a valuable resource - electricity.

"Local people can rest easy knowing that instead of any rubbish they are unable to recycle being dumped in a landfill site and emitting harmful greenhouse gas emissions, it will be used to power their homes with green energy."

The gasification plant works by taking residual household rubbish and breaking it down through thermal and chemical processes to create a synthetic gas fuel which is then used to generate electricity.

The Shanks 'Frog Island' facility, which will provide the rubbish, is less than half a mile away from where the gasification plant is being built, so transportation is minimal, helping to cut down on carbon emissions.

More information is available from www.lwarb.gov.uk

Mystery red marks

POLICE are reassuring residents that there is nothing sinister behind red markings that have appeared on homes.

Residents feared their homes had been 'marked' to be a later target for crime.

Police stress that hundreds of homes have been marked were not of a single age range or section of the community as first feared. It is believed the markings have been made by a sales company to identify to their staff which homes to canvass.

Street party

GROUPS can apply for funding of up to £450 to help them with their St George's day street party.

To receive help from Barking and Dagenham Council, applicants must complete a form with their details and where the party is being held.

Deadline for completed forms Friday, March 11. For an application form, please contact Nikki Noibi on 020 8227 2602, or at nyenike.noibi@bbd.gov.uk

Traders scheme

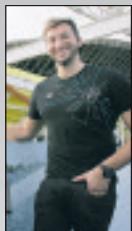

SMALL businesses can attract more customers by joining a trusted traders scheme run by Barking and Dagenham Council.

Beat bad weather with an emergency car kit

WE have already battled with snow, rain and ice over the last couple of months, so who knows what's around the corner before we reach the spring.

Snow brought the country to a standstill in the run-up to Christmas and floods left roads impassable in the New Year when heavy rainfall fell on already saturated ground.

It could all happen again before we reach the spring, and here at Carcraft - the UK's leading used car supermarket - we want you to be safe on the roads during harsh weather.

So if you are unfortunate enough to get stuck in the snow or find yourself stranded in the final weeks of winter, we have the perfect gift for you - our winter car survival kit.

The kit contains a tow rope, a wind-up torch, an emergency foil blanket that retains body heat in cold weather, two instant hand warmers, an ice scraper and a storage bag. It has everything you need to cope with the bad weather for many winters to come.

For Carcraft, our customers' safety on the roads is vitally important, which is why each of our cars undergoes a 120 point check and comes with a free, two-year guarantee.

Our 11 showrooms across the UK - including one at Lakeside retail park, West Thurrock - offer a massive choice of cars, guaranteed part exchange and flexible finance options to suit your pocket.

So even if the conditions are against you, we want you to 'drive happy' - keep our survival kit in your car and you can drive with peace of mind this winter and throughout the year.

For more information about Carcraft, call 0800 923 9500 or see www.carcraft.co.uk

For your chance to win one of 15 winter car survival kits, worth £35 each, just answer the following question:

Q:How many Carcraft showrooms are there across the UK?

A: 10

B: 11

C: 12

To enter the competition, telephone your answer - A, B or C - to 0901 307 1676 along with your name, address and telephone number.

Alternatively text YACARCRAFT (space) followed by A, B or C, and your name and full address to 63333.

Calls cost 50p from a BT

landline. Calls from other networks may vary and from mobiles will cost considerably more. Texts cost 50p plus your standard network rates. If you do not wish to receive details on any other products AWARENESS: Chief Inspector Richard Goodwin, Councillor Jeanne Alexander, Barking and Dagenham's Borough Commander, Chief Superintendent Matt Bell and Seline Walker from Crimestoppers UK launch the stolen goods campaign.

Beware dangers of buying stolen goods

By Martyn Dolton

A CAMPAIGN has been launched to warn people of the dangers of buying stolen goods.

It appeals to the good nature and community spirit of local people for them to think seriously about the effects of crime on their neighbours and the community as a whole.

The campaign, funded by the Crimestoppers Trust, includes posters in bus shelters and on buses warning people of the dangers of buying stolen goods.

Residents are being urged to resist the temptation of a bargain as the money from the sale could be going to fund criminal activity such as drugs.

Councillor Jeanne Alexander, cabinet member for Justice and Communities, said: "Some people may think buying the odd phone or clothing item down the pub at half the price is a bargain, but in so doing, they might just as well have been responsible for the burglary down the road or the mugging of a young school child."

Any witnesses to criminal activity or anyone offered goods who think may have been from the proceeds of crime, can call Crimestoppers on 0800 555 111.

Callers do not have to give their name and a cash reward may be on offer.

Thorpedo to make comeback for 2012 Games

By Martyn Dolton

A FORMER Olympic gold medalist will come out of retirement to compete in the 2012 London Olympics because he was so impressed with the Aquatics Centre.

Australian swimming star Ian Thorpe, nicknamed the 'Thorpedo', won three gold medals at the Sydney 2000 Games and another two in Athens four years later.

He retired in November 2006 but decided he wanted to compete again following a visit to the London 2012 Aquatics Centre.

He said: "I went to see the swimming venue for the London Olympics and it's an extraordinary venue and I could taste it, which is something I haven't felt for a very, very long time.

"It hasn't been a decision I've made lightly.

"I like swimming, I like performing, I like racing.

"There's something that's been nagging - 'I want to do this'."

Lord Seb Coe, chairman of the London 2012 Organising Committee, said: "It's great news that Ian is making a come back at the London Games next year.

"He has always been an outstanding competitor, a legend in his sport and the British fans remember his extraordinary performance at the Manchester Commonwealth Games in 2002."

RETURN: Australian swimming legend, Ian Thorpe, with Lord Seb Coe, will make his comeback at London 2012.

A refreshing sponsor for 2012 Games

A DRINKS company has become the latest sponsor of the 2012 Olympic Games.

As part of the deal, Heineken UK will have exclusive pouring rights for its range of beer and cider brands at all London 2012 venues where alcohol is served.

Chris Townsend, The London Organising Committee of the Olympic and Paralympic Games (LOCOG) commercial director, said: "Like many major events, the provision of food and drink is a part of the overall experience and this year sees our plans in this regard move up a gear.

"We are especially pleased to be working with Heineken, as we have a shared goal of encouraging adult visitors to our venues where alcohol is served to celebrate responsibly.

"We welcome Heineken to the London 2012 family and look forward to working with them between now and the summer of 2012."

Affordable homes in strong demand

The volume of people seeking to buy an affordable home increased significantly last year, according to Sarah Humble, sales director at L&Q housing association, which offers homes for sale - on a shared equity basis - across London and the south east.

"The number of applicants enquiring about buying one of our affordable homes increased by around 10,000 in 2010 compared to the previous year", said Humble.

"We sell around 450 affordable homes annually."

With many would-be first time buyers struggling to raise the large deposits required to buy a home on a full ownership basis, Humble says that the affordable housing sector has "an extremely important" role to play in helping more people - who earn £60,000 or less per year - onto the housing ladder in 2011.

Affordable homes are typically available to buy on a part buy, part rent basis, shared equity basis, with purchasers often required to buy an initial minimum 25 percent equity share in a property.

L&Q will be exhibiting a selection of its affordable homes for sale at the South East London Affordable Homes Show later this month. The housing association will also offer a free shuttle bus service from the show to some of its housing developments in South London, including The Artillery and Greengate House, both located in south east London.

Hunter adds: "The Affordable Homes Show will offer a good opportunity for people to come and see what sort of affordable homes are available to buy. Visitors will also be able to talk to independent financial and legal advisors at the show."

The South East London Affordable Homes Show, which will promote over 500 affordable homes for sale, will be held on Saturday 19th February 2011 at the Queen Mary Room, Old Royal Naval College, Greenwich, between 11am and 4pm.

The Artillery, Shooters Hill, SE18, features an impressive collection of one, two and three bedroom contemporary apartments housed within the old Royal Military Academy.

The new build homes at the development are available to buy through L&Q's part buy, part rent scheme. Properties start from £180,000, with a minimum share percentage of 25 percent costing £45,000 and a monthly subsidised rent of £287.

Home hunters will also be invited to view homes at Greengate House, a striking piece of architecture consisting of 64 one and two bedroom apartments.

L&Q are also offering shared-ownership options on one and two bedroom apartments priced from £170,000. The minimum share percentage of 30% costs £46,500, with monthly rent from £249.

The South East London Affordable Homes Show, a free event hosted by Housing Options, will also bring together other major affordable housing providers operating in London and the south east including Affinity Sutton, Family Mosaic, Moat, In Place, Wandle and Southern Housing.

To find out if you are eligible for an affordable home, log-on to www.whathouse.co.uk.

The website, dedicated to the new and affordable housing sector, has a comprehensive list of new and affordable homes for sale.

Computer giants to create apprenticeships in capital

MORE young people will be able to get skills and jobs.

Technology giant Microsoft plans to create 1,000 apprenticeship opportunities in London over the next three years, the Mayor of London Boris Johnson announced this week.

The Mayor joined Business Secretary Vince Cable to launch National Apprenticeship Week in the City and called on the capital's big businesses to take on apprentices and help boost the economy.

Microsoft's commitment to increase the number of apprentices throughout their supply chain is a major boost to the Mayor's apprenticeship drive, which aims to deliver 20,000 new opportunities in the capital by the end of the current academic year.

Virgin Media confirmed it will be offering nearly 90 apprenticeships in 2011 and global law firm Norton Rose announced it will also make apprenticeships part of its recruitment policy.

The Mayor is particularly keen to see more apprentices in companies like these and in other areas where they are traditionally underrepresented, including financial and business services, and the cultural and creative sectors.

Mr Johnson said the schemes would help remove the 'social and personal disaster of Unemployment.

He added: "Apprenticeships can make all the difference to an eager job seeker's prospects.

"Time in the right workplace, with the right boss, can be worth months of training, teaching discipline, boosting self-belief and setting young people up for life."

Station platforms set for expansion

By Peter Henn

RAIL passengers using the Fenchurch Street line will find it easier to get a seat at rush hour after platform extensions were announced.

Rainham, Dagenham Dock, Purfleet, Grays, Tilbury Town, East Tilbury, Stanfords-le-Hope, Pitsea and Ockendon stations will see their platforms lengthened to accommodate 12-carriage trains.

Network Rail, which is funding the programme, has said the stations affected are ones where planned housing project will see a 'considerable' increase in people who use the stations.

Its route director, Andrew Munden, said with the millions of people who used the railways every day, it was necessary to allow more space for more spacious trains.

He said: "As the numbers of people who travel by rail continues to grow, it's schemes like this which will provide the bigger, better railway that's needed to meet that growth."

Passenger numbers in and around London are expected to rise by 33 per cent over the next 20 years.

The work will see all platforms at all the stations managed by train operators c2c capable of holding the extra-long trains.

CONDITIONS OF ACCEPTANCE FOR ALL ADVERTISEMENTS

Orders are accepted by the Publishers subject to the Standard Conditions agreed between the Newspaper Society and the Institute of Practitioners in Advertising. Save that:

1. Advertisements are accepted on the conditions that (a) descriptions relating to goods are accurate and in no way contravene the provisions of the Trade Descriptions Act 1968, and the Fair Trading Act 1973, and (b) the copy complies with the British Code of Advertising Practice. Advertisements offering credit or hire facilities must conform to the Consumer Credit (Advertisements) Regulations 1980.
2. 'Classified' Advertisers offering goods or service of a business, commercial or trade nature will, at the discretion of the Publishers, be deemed 'Trade Advertisers', and as such, must include their names in advertisements. A telephone number is an optional addition to these requirements and not an alternative.
3. To comply with the Business Advertisements (Disclosure) Order 1977, Trade Advertisers must make it clear that they are selling goods in the course of business either by content, format, size or place of the advertisement or by including words such as 'trade', 'dealer', 'agent', 'wholesaler', '(T)' etc. in the advertisement.
4. The Publishers accept no liability whatsoever for any loss or damage however caused arising out of:
(a) Any error, inaccuracy or omission in the printing or publishing of any advertisement;
(b) Any failure to publish an advertisement on the day / date or day / dates specified by the advertiser; or
(c) Any delay in forwarding or omission to forward replies to box numbers to the Advertiser.
5. The Publishers will endeavour to publish advertisements on the day / date or day / dates specified by the Advertiser but insertion days / dates cannot be guaranteed.
6. The Publishers reserve the right to reject an advertisement or to vary it in any way they deem fit, at any time before publication, whether or not the advertisement has already been accepted for publication.
7. Where shrinkage of advertisement occurs for whatever reasons the advertisement will be charged to the nearest full centimetre. This will NOT apply to the full-page advertisements, which remain full pages even after shrinkage.
8. All gross advertising rates (except classified lineage and semi-display) are subject to and include a 0.1% Advertising Standards Board of Finance surcharge, payable by the advertisers to help finance the self-regulatory control system administered by the Advertising Standards Authority.
9. All rates quoted are subject to VAT at the rate currently in force at the time the advertisement appears.
10. Should the rate for advertisements be altered the price for remaining insertions shall be revised accordingly or the publishers shall have the right to cancel the unexpired portion of the order.
11. The placing of an advertisement order will be deemed an acceptance of these conditions.
12. Account facilities are granted at the discretion of the Company.
13. All accounts must be settled within the terms agreed by the Company and the Customer.
(1) Should an advertiser be in breach of the agreed terms, the publisher shall be entitled to levy a 10% surcharge on the value of the whole debt in respect of accounts with terms of less than 30 days, and any discounts or commissions that had been allowed will be reclaimed.
(2) Regular monthly accounts that are in breach of the agreed terms will pay an interest rate of 6% above the current bank of England base rate for each month that the account is overdue and discounts or commissions that had been allowed will be reclaimed. Should Legal action be required the interest will be charged in accordance with the County Court Act 1984.
14. Where an advertiser instructs / appoints an advertising agent to act on their behalf, the advertiser will remain jointly and severally liable for payment in respect for an advertisement(s) should the appointed agent fail to pay. For the avoidance of doubt, the agent acts for the advertiser and not for the publisher with the agent being responsible for notifying the advertiser of this liability.
15. All queries must be notified, preferably in writing to the accounts department of the publisher within 7 days of the invoice date.
16. All digital services are maintained in partnership with the publishers' hosting service providers. Every effort is made to ensure the continuity of these services, but some occasional technical downtime beyond the publishers control may occur. The publisher and its associated companies shall be under no liability if the production and distribution of web services is delayed or prevented by any cause beyond the control of the publisher.
17. The Publisher may provide voucher copies for published advertisements in electronic form only subject to certain criteria. Further information is available on request.
18. The copyright of advertisements produced wholly or partially by the Publishers belongs to the Publishers. Advertisers may not reproduce such advertisements without the Publishers' consent.

Box Numbers
Boxes are open for the receipt of bona fide answers and are not available for distribution of trade canvassing matter. Original testimonials, goods, cash, cash stamps or payments of any kind must not be enclosed. A box Number and postal address are charged as part of the advertisement, i.e. Box No., centre address. There is no charge for forwarding replies.
Box numbers alone are not available for use in 'Trade' advertisements, other than Employment and Business Opportunities.

Holiday & Travel Category
All advertising must contain the name of the advertiser, phone number alone are not permitted.

Data Protection
The service you have requested may require us to carry out a credit search at a credit-referencing agency, which will record the fact that a search has been made. We may need to share your information with other lenders and credit reference agencies. However, we will only use the information from these searches to make credit-granting decisions and, if necessary, for fraud prevention or tracing debtors.

Data controller will use your information for administration and analysis. We may share your information with other Tindle Group Newspaper companies or carefully selected third parties. We, or they, may send you details of other goods and services, which may be of interest to you. The information may be provided by letter, telephone or other reasonable means of communication. Calls may be recorded or monitored for training purposes.
Special conditions apply with regard to the advertising of adult services, which are outlined to all persons submitting such advertisements.

Lions go down to Devils in closely-fought contest

Cardiff ENIHL Devils 7
 Lee Valley Lions 5

WITH the teams almost level-pegging in the league table, Lee Valley Lions were almost certain of a closely-fought contest when they hosted Cardiff ENIHL Devils on Saturday.

What the home team did not perhaps anticipate was going one goal down less than three minutes into the game.

Lions pulled back at 12:24 with an unassisted goal from Blair Dubyk but the Devils took advantage of Lee Valley's clumsy approach and went 3-1 ahead.

Dubyk managed to slip the puck past netminder Luke Takei at 19:49 but the period overall was lacklustre.

The second period started well for Lee Valley when Shane Bojenko took the puck the length of the ice and held his nerve to equalise at 22:35. Penalties against Cardiff then gave Lee Valley the perfect opportunity to pull ahead of their opposition, but the team failed to organise an efficient attack and instead collapsed, suffering the humiliation of not one, but two short-handed goals within the space of just four seconds.

A further goal from Josh Haslem at 38:08 increased the visitors' lead to 6-3 and it looked as if the Lions were going down without a fight.

However, the final minute soon brought Lee Valley back into the game, when James Scott-Joseph scored and Blair Dubyk celebrated his hat-trick just seconds later.

The Lions were desperate to secure points but their performance failed to step up a gear.

Netminder Ruth Cattell was rested in favour of George Alley but Ben Brown put away Cardiff's decisive seventh goal at 45:53 and the Lions had no answer.

Alley was pulled in favour of an extra skater for the last minute of the game but the Devils' defence were unperturbed and the final score was 7-5 to the visitors.

Lee Valley Lions travel to Kent where they face Invicta Mustangs before hosting Bristol Pitbulls on February 26, face-off 5.15pm.

Rugby Union

Barking avoid banana skin, while Westcliff win at rivals

BARKING averted a shock result on Saturday to keep their unbeaten record in National League One.

The Eastenders hosted bottom club Launceston and found themselves behind twice in the match before regaining control to take the 27-16 win.

They now have a two point advantage over London Scottish who took a bonus point in their 3-40 win at Blaydon.

Westcliff won the crunch match in London One North at nearest rivals Sidcup.

Despite being down 19-18 at half-time, the runaway leaders took victory by 22-28.

Chingford failed to take advantage of Sidcup's loss, losing 16-10 at fourth place Colchester. Fifth place Thurrock won 0-15 at Brentwood, while Woodford lost 22-17 in their mid-table clash at Old Colfeians. Eton Manor won 18-3 over Ruislip.

Another crunch match saw Rochford Hundred come out on top against Braintree in London Two North East.

Hundred won 27-12 over their nearest rivals to give themselves a six point lead at the top.

Romford & Gidea Park keep a watching brief in third following their 51-10 victory over Saffron Walden, while Chelmsford's superb run of form continued, winning 14-27 at Canvey Island.

Basilston kept up the chase of leaders Lowestoft & Yarmouth in London Three North East. They beat bottom side Wisbech 17-10, but the gap was extended to five points after Lowestoft won 27-56 at Upminster.

South Woodham Ferrers beat Wymondham 36-26 while Campion lost 11-13 to third place Norwich.

Leyton Orient

O's revival continues

By Rowland Lyons

THREE first-half goals in the space of 14 minutes were enough to see Orient climb to 11th spot in League One.

Dean Cox, Alex Revell and Stephen Dawson were on target as the O's ran riot over Swindon Town.

However, but for a combination of splendid goalkeeping from the in-form Jamie Jones and the woodwork, it could have been a totally different story before the break.

Manager Russell Slade admitted: "It was a strange old game and it could have been 3-3 at half-time. I really felt for Danny Wilson and his Swindon side."

■ Orient entertain struggling Bristol Rovers this Saturday (kick-off 3pm).

Dagenham & Redbridge

Daggers drop to bottom

DAGENHAM & Redbridge dropped to the bottom of npower League One despite picking up a well-earned point at promotion chasers Oldham Athletic on Saturday.

Romain Vincelot's eighth goal of the season saw the Daggers level the scores, cancelling out Dale Stephens' goal early in the second half.

The Daggers also ended the match with 10-men when Peter Gain was sent off after a high challenge on Oumare Tounkara.

Daggers boss John Still said: "It is a very good point for us. They are one of the top sides in this league and we knew it would be a tough game today."

"We work really hard on restarts and we scored from a quick throw in the week so it always nice when things we work on in training come off on the pitch."

Still said he would still look at the DVD of Gain's sending off before deciding whether to appeal on the red card

Relegation battle will go down to the wire - Grant

West Ham United

HAMMERS boss Avram Grant feels the battle for survival will go down to the wire after seeing his side return to the bottom of the table.

West Ham went down 1-0 to relegation rivals Birmingham City to put them 20th in the Premier League on goal difference. Wolves are level with them on 24 points, while Wigan and West Brom are two points ahead.

So close is the league this season, that the Hammers are separated from eighth place Bolton by nine points.

Grant said: "It's the first game we have lost against a team which is near us, so it is not good and we are not so happy with this."

"It is the most interesting season there has been both at the top and the bottom. It will be a fight until the end of the season. I think there will be five or six teams in it."

In form Victor Obinna was at the heart of a lively start for the Irons, with Robbie Keane also adding to the attack.

For Birmingham, it was David Bentley looking the most creative, although defender Roger Johnson came closest to scoring, but he headed over from Lee Bowyer's cross.

The game turned with the introduction of Seb Larsson into the City line up. The Swede, whose contract expires in the summer, crossed from the left for Serbian Nicola Zigic to nod home on 65 minutes.

With Larsson having replaced

Cameron Jerome, the visitors were already in a more defensive formation. Grant set out to attack more and brought on Carlton Cole and Demba Ba, the latter hitting the post with his first touch in the Claret and Blue.

West Ham pushed, but failed to create any clear cut chances for an equaliser.

West Ham could move out of the bottom three on Saturday if they beat West Brom. Wigan and Wolves, who are also in the drop zone, travel to Liverpool and Arsenal respectively.

City bounce back while Thurrock earn point

Non-League Football

A DOUBLE for Dave Rainford and Wayne Gray's first goal for Chelmsford City saw them brush aside Basingstoke in Blue Square South on Monday night with a 4-0 win.

The Claret have gone off the boil as of late and were looking to put behind them Saturday's disappointing 2-1 defeat to Havant & Waterlooville at the Melbourne Stadium.

All four goals came in the first half for City through Rob Edmans (10), Rainford (19, 36 pen) and Gray (20).

Thurrock's decent run of form continued with a point at Staines Town on Saturday.

Richard Butler gave the hosts an early lead, but Fleet veteran Matt Bodkin equalised on 39 minutes.

Canvey Island's good run of form pushed them closer to the play-offs after their 3-2 win over relegation battlers Croydon Athletic on Tuesday night in Ryman League Premier.

The Gulls were 3-0 up inside the first 34 minutes through Danny Heale and a double from Rob King.

However Croydon battled back, with Shabazz Baidoo pulling one back on 35 minutes, while Danny Elgar's goal in the 54th minute made it a nervous second half for Canvey.

Billerica Town snatched a second half stoppage time winner to win 1-0 over Maidstone United to boost their play-off charge. Cedric Ngakam grabbed the goal in the 90th minute.

AFC Hornchurch had no answer to leaders Sutton United, going down 3-0.

The home side left it late, with Craig Dunda scoring two in six minutes, and Leroy Griffiths grabbing a 88th minute goal to leave the Urchins disappointed.

Concord Rangers came out on the wrong of a topsy-turvy match at Tonbridge Angels, going down 3-2.

Harry Elmes quickly wiped out Ben Judge's 10th minute opener for Angels.

The striker then put Concord ahead in the 46th minute, but that lead was short-lived as Ade Olorunda levelled two minutes later.

Lee Browning snatched the winner in the 78th minute to dent Concord's play-off hopes.

Relegation threatened Aveley lost 1-0 at Tonbridge on Saturday. Frankie Collin scored the only goal of the game in the 77th minute.

In Ryman League Division One North, Romford's good form in the New Year continued, beating lowly Redbridge 3-1 to boost their play-off chances.

Paul Kavanagh put Boro ahead with a 19th minute penalty, cancelled out by Benjamin six minutes later.

However, Joe Pearman restored Romford's lead in the 35th minute, with Kurt Smith making sure of the three points with five minutes to go.

Heybridge Swifts took derby honours in emphatic style, beating play-off hopefuls Maldon & Tiptree 4-0. Chris Bryan scored a hat-trick with Nathan Smith also on the scoresheet.

Grays Athletic enjoyed a 3-0 victory at Cheshunt - Alex Osborn, Simon Thomas and Danny Bunce all on target in the second half.

Great Wakering Rovers got back to winning ways with a 2-0 win over Thamesmead Town with goals
